AMAZING PUPILS !

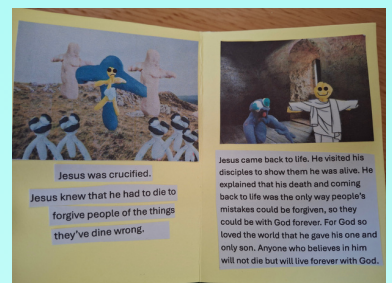

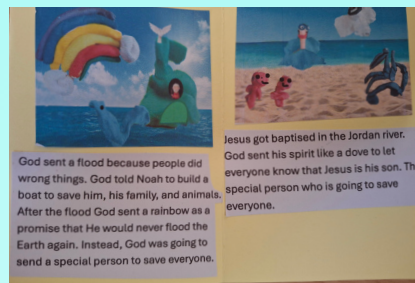

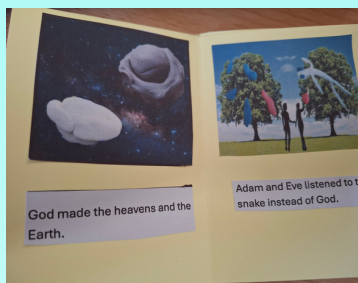

As pupils and teachers in our schools are enjoying their Summer break, we've been looking back over this academic year and giving thanks for another great year working with the fantastic teams in our schools- what a privilege it has been to establish new relationships, deepen existing connections and support our schools! We have also enjoyed being part of school sacred days, helping out during church weeks, praying with Heaton's churches, helping out with school visits to churches and updating 6 churches on our work.

Isaiah 43:1 says "See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland."

This year, God has continued to 'make a way': leading us into new schools/colleges; inspiring young people to research and lead their own discussions in our clubs and prompting young people to seek out their local church to explore their faith even further.

We are so grateful for all our opportunities in schools- all made possible by the contributions of our supporters. If you supported us financially, if you prayed for God's work in schools, please know that we are very grateful for your faithful giving- God is doing great things through your support.

As promised, here's the completed Playdoh Bible made by pupils at Castle Hill School- they had a great time hearing the stories and producing their own interpretations!

Thank you again for all your support!
